

On September 7th students of DAV International School Vaishnavi Mehta and Ruju Trivedi participated in the city round of national inter school crossword contest, where more than 11 schools participated and performed pretty well.